

JOB VACANCY

Title: Project Manager
Location: Hargeisa (Somaliland)
Deadline: 16/02/2019

Sector: Mental Health
Duration: 1 year, renewable
Start of Contract: May 2019

BACKGROUND

Since its foundation in 1968, GRT (Group for Transcultural Relations) has been working with socially marginalized groups and individuals by setting up protection mechanisms in order to promote social inclusion. GRT is active in Kenya and Somalia since 1996, where the main fields of intervention are: Community Mental Health and Psychosocial Support (MHPSS), Protection (GBV and Street Children) and (forced) Migrations, being expression of GRT's core areas of expertise.

GRT works mainly with professionals such as psychologists, social workers, anthropologists, medical practitioners, social scientists, teachers for the development of culturally and economically sustainable interventions in line with the organization's mission.

In Somaliland/Somalia GRT is de facto the only International NGO committed with continuity to the development of the mental health sector and in support of the rights of persons with mental health problems. Over the years GRT has trained mental health professionals, opened the first public Mental Health Facility in Puntland, supported the development of a 100% chain-free mental health department at the public Hospital in Hargeisa, supported the Somaliland Ministry of Health in the promulgation of the first ever Mental Health policy. Thousands of persons with mental health problems and their families have benefited the public, and also private, services supported and ameliorated thanks to GRT intervention and the conscious mediation between different therapeutic powers in the field.

Within the framework of GRT Mental Health activities, the organization seeks to fill the position of Project Manager.
